Caltanissetta and fired the Town Hall, Post Office, and other public buildings.In a conflict between the troops and the people at Lercara several of the rioters were shot.

morrow, and the Deuster into Kowloon Dock.THE Admiralty have appointed Dr. T. H. Knott to that the nominations for that classic event close with the Clerk of the Course on the 30th inst.MR. Pava, recently agent in Calcutta for the Bank of China, Japan and the Straits, has been appointed Chief Manager of the Bank in London.THE Free Press reports at fifteen hundred ounces of gold, of the value of close on $50,000, arrived at Singapore from the Puy-mine mines on the 15th inst.We regret to have to record the death of Lady Browne, wife of an ex-Governor of this colony, which occurred in London from acute bronchitis on the 13th inst.We note that Mr. T. S. Serravallo Smith, B.A., London University, and Assistant Registrar General of this colony, was called to the Bar on November 17th.SHARES in a Coalfield (Western Australia) gold mining venture, which were recently bought for fifty shillings, are now selling at one hundred and forty-three pounds.THE Canadian Pacific Railway Co.'s royal mail steamer Empress of China arrived at Kobe at 9.30 a.m. yesterday and left again for this port at 10 p.m. the same day.THE P. & O. Co.'s steamer Valatia, which left London on November 23rd, has on board £174,150 in silver for China and Japan, and £65,000 in Mexican dollars for Panama.MESSRS. Ricco & Co., provision dealers, &c., Queen's Road, have issued to their patrons for 1894 a number of elegant and useful calendars, in charming designs, in both English and French.On arrival at Singapore from Swatow on the 20th inst., Capt. Moore of the Viper, reported that the derelict German barque Karl Friedrich had been picked up by the German barque Georgina.The new Governor of Singapore, Sir Charles Michell, is coming out by the M. M. steamer Sydney, leaving Marseilles on January 7th. It is strange how persistently all the Governors of British Colonies boycott British ships!It has been suggested that the Shanghai Municipal Council should present or sell Jubilee medals to residents who have been in China thirty years! Can "Bellyloss" be at the bottom of the business? If so his case is indeed a sad one.The section of the Opium Commission deputed to collect evidence in Burma arrived at Rangoon from Calcutta on the 6th inst. The party consists of Sir Jas. Lyle, Sir Wm. Roberts, Mr.

Arthur Pease, and Mr. Alexander, Secretary to the Anti-Opium League.THE Singapore Free Press reports that on the 20th of the 18th inst. a very large four-masted ship with double topmast yards on the fore, main and mizzen and single on the after mast, with royal, passed between Swatow in the Way and the Sumatra coast, and states that the vessel was probably the German ship H. Bittorf Captain Schwaning, from Kobe and bound to New York.In a fire which occurred outside the Little South Gate of Shanghai city on the 19th inst. two children, a girl and a boy, were burnt to death.
Twenty houses in all were destroyed, and a great deal of loose property is reported to have been carried off by the thieves who infest the scenes of fires whether in the native City or foreign Settlements, and are apparently as well able to elude the foreign police as the native yamen-runners.ALAS! Alas! Misfortunes never come singly.
Only a day or two ago our stable-yard rooster, that crowed up at 5 o'clock every morning for the past five years, breathed his very last, and now one of our printers' "devils," a promising young fellow of 29 summers, is at his last gasp. He ate aiffin on Christmas Day that had been wrapped up in an issue of our evening contemporary, so no wonder "he's in the asylum now." But it's hard lines all the same.THE Japan Mail of the 16th inst. reports as follows:—The Yola R. Robinson, while leaving Hakodate this week for San Francisco, sulphur laden, got ashore on Mussel Point, opposite Hakodate Head. There are several miles of sand in the vicinity, and it was hoped that the ship was on a soft place and would be got off, but a telegram was received here yesterday announcing that the ship had been abandoned, her cargo being under water. This would lead to the supposition that she had got upon a reef in the neighbourhood of the point.THERE was an alarm of fire last night, and the brigade was "rung out," without any necessity, as it happened. A bundle of shavings caught fire mysteriously in a carpenter's shop at No. 150, Queen's Road Central; but the policeman on duty went up and put his foot on the blaze, and smothered it in one act. It is rumored that several persons are missing, and are supposed to have been likewise blighted out by the same awful extinguisher; but up to the time of going to press we have been unable to verify the report.On the 17th inst. while on her last voyage hence to Shanghai the steamer Kaifong, Capt.
Sutherland, sighted a capsized junk to which four men and a boy were clinging.
A boat was lowered and the east-ways transferred to the steamer where they received attention and were taken on to Shanghai. The men stated they had been in the water some six hours, and that one of their number had been drowned when the junk capsized. It is stated that there were lots of other junks about, but no effort was made to rescue the unfortunate men from the perilous position, in which the Kaifong found them.With reference to the proposed visit of a ticket-ing team from Shanghai and Japan should an eleven come from there) early in February, Mr.
E. A. Ram, Hon. Secretary to the Hongkong Cricket Club, has written to Shanghai as follows: "I need not say what a pleasure it will be to us to see you here as our guests and we should hope to be able to give you some good cricket. I do not know how the time suggested will suit you, but I mention it as it coincides with the time of the season (from a business point of view), and also because I would give a chance to any of your men who wished to do so of staying on for the races."LAST night at the meeting of the Zeland Lodge Bro. J. B. Scott was installed as Worshipful Master of the Lodge for the ensuing year by Rt.
Wor. Bro. C. P. Chatter, District Grand Master, who was attended by the District Grand Lodge Officers. The Worshipful Master afterwards appointed and invested his Officers as follows:—S.W. Bro. G. A. Caldwell.
J.W. J. R. Crook.
Chaplain George Percy, Jr.
Treasurer R. Mitchell.
Secretary J. Dyer Ball.
Organist J. Murphy.
S.D. D. Macdonald.

I.G. G. A. Blackland.
D.C. J. W. Kew.
Steward J. Maxwell.On the closing of the Lodge the Brothers adjourned to a banquet at which the usual loyal and Masonic toasts were honored.THERE appears to be no limit in this realm of the blest ether to the ablutions of native coal merchants or the value they place on their "black diamonds." The other day ordinary Japanese lamp glass was selling like hot cakes at $5 and $6.25 per ton, and now $7 to $8 is being asked for the same quality of this indispensable commodity, while a scarcity of tonnage renders the prospects of a drop in quotations about as remote as Doomday.It is reported that the Governor of Formosa has decided to construct a road between Kelung and Hubei (Famul) which will be about twenty miles long. It will be a great boon to the inhabitants of the district, as hitherto persons desiring to go from one to the other have been compelled to make the journey in boat or launch, the land route being too mountainous. The work will also be of strategic value and will, says a Shanghai contemporary, be carried out by soldiers.THE Kobe Chronicle of the 19th inst. says:—"We hear that the Japanese have purchased an outside foreign steamer to be employed on the coast, this being the Heiwa, a German steamer of 88 registered tons. The price said to have been paid is $40,000, net, and, though negotiations have been on foot some time, the sale was only completed at Shanghai a few days ago.
The Heiwa arrived here yesterday morning for the purpose of being surveyed and turned over to her new owners."THE L. & C. Express of the 24th ult. understands that "The New London Borneo Company will pay an interim dividend very shortly on account of the profits of the 1893 crop.
The payment will be distinctly encouraging to those who have believed in Borneo as a tobacco-growing country, as this is the first instance of one of the companies paying a dividend out of the sales of tobacco, and, as it is an interim payment, it seems to indicate a further return when the complete accounts of the year are made up."At the Magistracy to-day, before Mr. H. E.
Webb, W. Webb was charged by G.
Passantino with assault last Sunday. The parties are engineers employed at the Peak tramway station. The evidence showed that some dispute arose as to signalling the tram cars, and as the defendant seemed dangerously aggressive he was suspended by the superintendent, Mr. Wylie. Later in the day, they met again, and without giving Passantino time to say a word, Webb attacked him savagely, knocking him down and cutting his face open with a blow of the fist. Defendant was fined $35, and bound over in a similar sum for six months.
The money was paid.At Shanghai on the evening of the 20th inst. the COLONIAL COURT OF ADMIRALTY.

(Before Mr. E. J. Ashford, Judge.)

December 28th.

THE STRANDING OF THE "HAIPHONG."

The suit between the owners of the Norwegian steamer Krim and the French steamer Haiphong for $14,000, salvage money and expenses, was continued to-day. As before, Mr.
J. J. Francis, Q.C., was for the plaintiffs and Mr. J. Leach, Q.C., for the defendants, and Comm. Hastings acted as naval assessor.The evidence of the captain and officers of the Krim, which had been taken de bene esse, was read.Mr. Francis said that the only other evidence to be called on the plaintiffs' side was that of Captain Barthelemy, who had been sent for but was not yet in court.Mr. Leach said he was quite willing to allow Captain Barthelemy's evidence to be taken at a later stage, after the case for the defence had been opened.His lordship:—I notice that witnesses are treated with very great indulgence here—allowed to go and come when they please.Mr. Francis said that the plaintiffs' chemi-calists of the community necessitated greater latitude than in other places.Mr. Leach then addressed the court briefly, stating that the defence was not a denial of any liability at all, but simply that the plaintiffs' claim should be cut down considerably. The Krim did not do enough to justify a claim for salvage reward, but only one for work done; it could not salvage property, and they were only entitled to remuneration for their labors.The Haiphong was in a position of comparative safety, and was not disabled in any way nor in imminent peril. The Krim certainly did make efforts to assist, but failed altogether to do any good; she moved the stranded vessel sideways a little, but when the rope broke she slipped back again. Further, the defendants denied liability for the time that the plaintiffs' vessel was detained around, and for expenses resulting therefrom. Defendants also asserted that there was never any need to let the off from the Krim, as the could easily have got off on the next tide with the aid of her anchors. The failure of the Krim to accomplish the salvage was due to her using a hawser of too great length, and at too great an angle.
Even if she could claim for actual salvage, her efforts were only of a minor nature, in which the Chinese gunboat had a share. Several items in the claim were disputed, among them being one of $300 made by Messrs. Schillman & Co.; agents of the Krim, for drawing up the claim.Captain Barthelemy then entered the witness-box, and on being asked to give particulars as to the value of the Krim before the accident, he said:——This question requires special knowledge to answer, and for such technical evidence, fees are prescribed—namely $20, minimum; $55, maximum.His lordship:—What have you to say to that, Mr. Francis?Mr. Francis:—Now that Captain Barthelemy is in the witness box he must answer any question put to him.His lordship:—Yes, the witness has no privilege, and cannot refuse to answer.Witness:—I am entitled to fees for giving expert evidence, or I need not give it.His lordship:—You must—you are sworn.
Witness:—No, I have not been sworn yet as an expert.His lordship:—You were sworn yesterday as an ordinary witness, and your oath was "touching the matter in question," covering the whole case, not the one day simply.Mr. Francis:—A witness may abstain from attending, but once he has attended and taken the oath, he must tell all he knows in reply to questions.Mr. Leach:—I think it is quite the other way —that he must attend but may refuse to speak.
There was a case recently—Mr. Francis:—I object to my learned friend defending my witness; he has nothing to say ever to do with him.His lordship:—Well, no doubt any reasonable suggestion will be taken into consideration by the trial-judge.The witness then agreed to give his technical evidence. The Krim's valuation on the 23rd March (prior to the accident) he now estimated at £17,000, having allowed £1,000 for depreciation since she was launched, about four years ago.
The Haiphong had originally been worth about £32,000, but had been ashore on a previous occasion, so that just before the present suit originated she was worth £28,000.The evidence was then given for the defence.
The case was not concluded when the trial court rose, and the case was adjourned until to-morrow."PRINCESS TOTO" AT THE THEATRE ROYAL.In accordance with what has become time-honoured custom Hongkong's very own select and highly talented band of Theatricals have not allowed the festive season of 1893-94 to pass unadorned into oblivion without giving one more of the lavishly entertained and which have con-so effectively to make Hongkong—and themselves—famous; but it would be impossible to admit that the Hongkong Amateur Dramatic Club deserves well at the hands of the community, for performances of the high stamp of excellence which I variably characterize their act only be carried through with an infinite amount of patient drilling by efficient instructors, and self-denial, great amount of patience, time and personal convenience have to be sacrificed and it too often happens that the net value of the results of months of strenuous endeavour is in no degree commensurate with the efforts spent; and what in the imaginative mind of the budding amateur was regarded as a glorious night is not infrequently viewed in quite another light by a discerning audience. Hence it follows that when a signal success has been achieved those who worked for its attainment should have their merits acknowledged and receive their measure of praise. And this, we make bold to believe, the majority of Tuesday's audience will concur with us in saying is due to the members of the A. D. C. responsible for the production of "Princess Toto."The opera is the joint work of W. S. Gilbert and F. Clay and was first brought out in London some twenty years ago; but to the majority of those who witnessed the performance on Tuesday both the libretto and the music were new; it would require this paper to account for many of the most subtle points being missed, and the piece is not to be taken on its face, but spared. Certain it is, though, in the three acts there are some really comical situations which admit of the introduction of an amount of pantomimic gesture that just about saves it from being stupidly dull. The plot is as absurd as it is impossible, and by virtue of its invention its author is stamped as a fool; in the way Gilbert has and yet escape the name of fool. Of course, the original dialogue was not followed in the letter; local gags with more or less point in them were strewed around and these it must be admitted the classic diction of the immortal "Brownie" seemed to "give pleasure to all." Mr. C. H.
Gracie, it is needless to record, was cast for the role of King Porcino, a monarch beautiful to look upon but just about as stupid as being crucified. Porcino is painted as an ultra-sensitive being in his true colours by the surrounding nations, et cetera, as foot and if suspicious ever had absolute grounds for their existence they had in his case. However, it takes an actor of ability to act the fool with dignity, in Court dress especially, and Mr. Gracie being gifted with an unlimited supply of that essential quality scored a genuine success. As usual his enunciation and vocaliza-tion were perfect; indeed the same must be claimed for all the leading members in the cast. As Zaphira Porcino, Prince's Mother, Mr. S. L. Darby could be improved upon; he likewise could Mr. Blayney's conception of the part of Tramhorne. Mr. E. Osborne was the solemn countenance of Yanik and with all due respect to the discerning judgment of the committee it may be questioned if his abilities did not entitle him to a higher and more suitable part. Mr. Osborne was a good actor and as usual was letter-perfect in his dialogue. The Princess Toto was a good actress, as was a very creditable performance and a distinct advance vocally and historically on any other that we have seen here. The duets between himself and Princess Toto were the gems of the evening. As the effeminate worsted-working Prince Caramel Mr. George Caldwell made a decent hit and when he and the equally decent Countess Flore (Mr. D. K.
Silman) and Baroness (Mr. F. Lindsay Lloyd) were on the boards together the house was in a continuous state of effervescence. Mr.
A. Chapman donned the Beggar's garb but as a professional he must be written down as a failure.
Improvement in this line can only be brought about by constant practice.For the interpretation of the slave-minded Princess Toto, Mrs. E. W. Mitchell was roundly applauded, as much by her excellent rendering of the music as by her perfect performance and a distinct advance vocally and
seen here. The duets between himself
and Princess Toto were the gems of the evening. As the effeminate worsted-working Prince Caramel Mr. George Caldwell made a decent hit and when he and the equally
decent Countess Flore (Mr. D. K.
Lloyd) were on the boards together the house
was in a continuous state of effervescence. Mr.
A. Chapman donned the Beggar's garb but as a professional he must be written down as a failure.
Improvement in this line can only be brought about by constant practice.The singing and scenery were of course superior features in the performance, the monstrous and magnificent and the dancing perfection.
In brief, a prettier or more cleverly arranged production has seldom, if ever, been seen inside the walls of the Theatre Royal. "Princess Toto" will be repeated this evening and again on Saturday. January dates are the 3rd, 6th, 8th and 13th; but for all the performance, and best seats are practically filled in advance, and no doubt strong pressure will be brought to induce the A.D.C. to give a few more chances.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.) Amoy, December 20th.The option dispute mentioned in my last has brought two of our most eminent lawyers to Amoy—Mr. Francis, Q.C., and Mr. Leach, Q.C., and the legal duel began on Thursday last, before the British Consul, Mr. Gardner, as judge, assisted by Mr. Dimes and Mr. Choo Tai Hee as assessors. Mr. Clement interpreted, and Mr.Willis, a new arrival, was clerk of the court.
The case occupied all of Thursday and Friday, and part of Saturday; judgment was given on Monday.The suit was brought by Laprak Cass & Co., praying for an injunction to restrain Ewe Boon, Ewe Siew & Co. from detaining eight chests of opium, purchased by plaintiffs, or their agents from a man who had since been declared bankrupt. Mr. Leach was for the plaintiffs and Mr.
Francis for the defendant.On the opening of the proceedings, the petition was amended at Mr. Leach's request, so that Chai Tulin stood as plaintiff instead of Laprak Cass & Co.Mr. Leach then stated that this was practically a test case, involving the question whether the receipts given by the Customs bonded-warehouse are negotiable instruments or not. He claimed that they must be so considered; and quoting extensively from various laws and authorities, he called evidence as to the local trade usage, to show that the receipts were always regarded as negotiable, like bill-deeds or pig-notes were.Mr. Francis, for the defence, argued that as the receipts had been obtained from the defendants, on forty days' credit, by the Kien Moh hong, which had failed before the time was due and had not paid the money, the transaction must be deemed void, and the receipts (which in the meantime) must be valueless. The contract had been made between Ewe Boon & Co. and the Kien Moh, the former to deliver to the latter 8 chests in 40 days, on payment in full; and the Customs-house receipts were handed over only as a guarantee by the vendor. The purchaser, however, sold the receipts to Chai Tuan for $5,000; but the papers were not "chopped" by Ewe Boon & Co., but only by the Kien Moh; and therefore, it was argued, Chai Tuan could only claim it from the Kien Moh (now bankrupt) and not from Ewe Boon & Co.; the latter named would "chop" the documents on payment of the purchase money, but before. So, therefore, the Customs-house officers would only deliver the opium to Ewe Boon & Co., or some person with their "chop," not to Chai Tuan.His lordship in delivering judgment said the case simply turned on the evidence of local usage, as to whether the "chop" of the original importer, the bonded opium was or was not necessary to render the receipt a negotiable instrument; and on the evidence he gave judgment for the plaintiff, with costs. In deciding that the Ewe Boon "chop" was not essential, I must apologise for imperfections in this report, as I was not able to attend all the time, and have had to make it up as well as circumstances enabled me.

FOOCHOW NOTES.

Foochow, December 23rd.

The Viceroy returned from Amoy on Friday last. On his arrival here he paid a visit to the Arsenal, and then proceeded to the city.The suppression of the circulation of spurious cash, it is said, has in some way affected Chinese bankers, for several such banks in the city closed their doors lately.The sugar cane crop this year has been very short, and in consequence the price is much dearer than usual and there is very little demand from Niagao and Tientsin for this article of export.We hear the following stirring story from Fishing Lok:—Two men in a sampan were fishing in the river when a very big fish was caught; on endeavouring to land it the boat capsized and one of the men was drowned.
A man endeavored to take $30 to a prisoner, and in consequence the money took it to a house and there he hid his fortune and lost the whole of it. After this he returned home and committed suicide by hanging. His mother came to know of it, demanded an indemnity from the gambling house proprietor and obtained $100 to settle the case amicably.Last Saturday at about 2 o'clock in the morning, a man was found roaming in the streets in the city by a party of yamen runners. On being asked what he was doing in the street at that hour he answered that he was going out on business. The runners, not being satisfied with the excuse, for the man carried a lamp with him, took him in charge and led him off to the yamen, where he got 300 blows with a bamboo and is now in prison.Willis, a new arrival, was clerk of the court.

At daybreak the torpedo boats at Villagrande began a fire of grape shot upon the exposed points of Rio and Netherby and kept it up all day. Many were killed. Early in the morning a body of insurgent marines landed at Armacao above Netherby. They were met by troops from Netherby and a battle ensued, lasting an hour.

During the general cannonading four shells burst in the city.

Last night the insurgents seized a coal lighter owned by Wilson & Sons, British subjects. To-day the British Admiral compelled the captors to return the coal.

WARSAW, November 24th.

The official organ of Russia in Poland states that although the French press has exaggerated the Pope's share in bringing about the Russo-French entente, yet the entente commands his fullest sympathy, since it may ultimately lead to the restoration of the temporal power of the Papacy.

A Times special dispatch from London says there have been numerous false alarms from the Vatican during the past few days, but this time preparations are being seriously made for the election of a new Pope.

While still able to get about and take part sparingly in public functions, Leo XIII has visibly fallen into a state of senile decay which physicians do not believe can last till March. His hold on life at best is a matter of months.

WEXFORD, November 26th.

John Redmond, leader of the Parnellite body, in addressing a meeting here to-day, said the Parnellites were denounced by the opponents as factionists, yet both the adherents of Dillon and Healy had made overtures to the Parnellite party. The Healy faction wanted to smash the Dillon men; the latter, in turn, were eager to destroy Healy's following.

LONDON, November 26th.

A German magazine publishes a summary of the autumn maneuvers of the armies of Europe. No less than 1,300,000 men were called into service. More than 60,000,000 cartridges were used and 8,000,000 expended. The Russian army, Hungary mobilized the largest army, there being nearly 250,000 men in the field. Russia called out 216,000, Germany 160,000, Spain 170,000, Italy 145,000, England 70,000, France 25,000, Roumania 32,000, Holland 18,000, Belgium 35,000 and Switzerland 50,000.

Stormy weather and heavy snow in many places, is the weather record for the week. The season has been favorable to crops, which are looking well. In wheat there is no selling pressure or demand and small prices were quoted. In the lower favor, fluctuations in the American markets have but little influence. The Russian crop estimates are considered inflated. There was a good demand for Russian wheat at low prices. Californians were prompt at 27-30d.

A dispatch to the Times from Teheran says that 2,000 persons perished in an earthquake at Kuchan. Ten thousand bodies have already been recovered and 200 are still in the ruins. Fifty thousand cattle have been destroyed so far. The shocks still continue.

BERLIN, November 26th.

The King has refused to accept the resignations of the Cabinet.

NEW YORK, November 27th.

The Paris correspondent of the Herald cables: Princess Colonna, daughter of Mrs. John W. Mackay, has applied for separation from Prince Ferdinand Galati Colonna, and for the custody of her three children, Andrea, 8, Blanca, 6, and Marco, 4 years of age.

The marriage took place in Paris in 1883. Mr. Dircend, p.p. place in France, officiated at the religious ceremony which was one of the social events of the season.

Two years before the marriage Prince Colonna met Mrs. Mackay's daughter, then Miss Bryant, in Italy. He followed her to Paris and asked Mrs. Mackay for her hand. She replied: "I don't approve of my marrying a foreigner. Moreover, don't be deceived, she is not Mrs. Mackay's child, but his, daughter. She has no money of her own, therefore she has no dot. She is my daughter by my first husband, but she takes Mr. Mackay's name at his request."

The Prince persisted and his uncle Prince Stigliano Colonna, wrote in his behalf, saying that money was of no consequence as it was a love match.

Mrs. Mackay eventually gave way. The bride was married without dot or settlement, but Mrs. Mackay allowed her an income of $175,000 a year, besides giving her many valuable jewels.

The Prince and his bride went to Naples. Six months after the marriage the Prince began demanding money of his wife. She then discovered that he had a taste for gambling, horse-racing and a fast life. She bore his abuse, taunts and vulgarities until October last, when she left him in Paris, and took her three children, to the Hotel Brighton, where her grandmother, Mrs. Hungerford, was staying. Mrs. Mackay's time came on from Scotland to her daughter's aid.

The Herald's correspondent saw an intimate friend of the family yesterday, who said: "Prince Colonna and Mrs. Mackay have not spoken for years. No one would believe the enormous sum Mr. Mackay has paid for the Prince's gambling debts—over 1,000,000 francs in five years, apart from the allowance he made his stepdaughter. He also gave her money to furnish their home. All went in gambling. When his wife left her apartments the Prince sold all the tapestries and furniture, and is now living on the proceeds. He frequently said to his wife: 'I will take your American independence out of you.' She replied: 'You may if you kill me.'"

The friend who told me the above added that such a long-suffering and devoted wife as the Princess was never known. Finally she lost all respect for her husband and determined to leave him. The only time they have since met was during the preliminary proceedings in court.

John Mackay has written to his daughter: "I am glad you have taken this step. People will talk, of course, but you do not live to please other people and need not care what any one says, as long as you are happy and free."

The case comes on shortly. The Princess and her mother are living quietly in adjoining apartments at the Hotel Brighton in this city, and refuse all social invitations. Mrs. Mackay, however, expects to attend the wedding of Miss Adele Grant and the Earl of Essex in London.

ROME, November 27th.

In the highest and most reserved circles it is said to be well known that the present dream of the Vatican is the establishment of a Federal Italian republic. This idea is the only real explanation of the extraordinary language lately adopted by the Vatican organs in speaking of the mission of France and Russia with relation to the Papacy. The Vatican has formally denied the report that Mr. St. John de la Roche, Cardinal and that his successor as papal delegate to the United States has been named. The Vatican also denies that there is any truth in the alarming report circulated about the Pope's health.

A papal encyclical will be issued to-night on skepticism regarding the Bible. The encyclical contains instructions with a view to establishing the authenticity of the Bible by the study of ancient languages, monuments and modern science.

November 28th.

In court to-day the suit of Seaton versus the estate of the late Abingdon Bird, the well-known English sporting man, was called for hearing. Seaton, a frequenter of races, brought suit against the estate to recover the sum of $75,000, which was said to be the unpaid balance of a consideration of $125,000 which Bird promised to pay the plaintiff for quietly recovering the bulk of the sum of $125,000, alleged to have been stolen from Bird by a lady with whom the Squire had relations.

As soon as the jury was sworn in a conference between counsel was held, and later Sir Henry James announced that an arrangement had been made satisfactory to both parties. The proceedings were then closed. Among those notified in the vicinity during the conference between the counsel was Mrs. Langtry. The Westminster Gazette adds that from the jubilation with which Mrs. Langtry received the news of the settlement it may be presumed that the terms were not unsatisfactory to her.

Sydney Buxton, Parliamentary Secretary of the Colonial Office, said that Lord Aberdeen, Governor-General of Canada, had telegraphed that the attempt to blow up the Nelson monument in Montreal was the freak of three excitable lads, and that the outrage was a subject of regret and disappointment on the part of the entire French and English press of Canada.

Mrs. Montoy, Chief Secretary for Ireland, has had a relapse. He is suffering from influenza.

Replying to a toast at luncheon, Lord Salisbury said: "Gladstone, when in difficulties, always sought more power by setting some class against his neighbor. Gladstone complains that the House of Lords is all on one side but it was not always so. The phenomenon is coincident with the period during which Gladstone has been leader of the Liberals. Gladstone's political career shows him stepping from one inclination to a disunion of classes to another and similar inclination, and as long as he is in need of majorities he will pursue this aim and will continue to find new causes to set Englishmen against their brothers. That is the complaint I have to make against the legislation now before Parliament. Gladstone does not differ with the Government regarding principle, but in regard to the treatment which simply encourages the antipathy of one class to another."

LATE TELEGRAMS.

CALCUTTA, December 7th. The experience gained in late riots has shown the necessity for a definite ruling concerning the procedure to be adopted when troops or armed police are employed against a determined mob. The authorities in their desire to avoid bloodshed have in some instances attempted to overawe the rioters by firing blank cartridges. The result has been merely to increase the confidence of the rioters and infuriate them. In a letter addressed to all Local Governments and Administrations, the Government of India points out that this consideration led fifteen years ago to the issue in Great Britain of imperative instructions that blank ammunition should never be used by troops in aid of the civil power. In the Queen's regulations, very stringent orders are given regarding the use of troops in case of civil disturbances. The Government of India has now decided to adopt the principles embodied in the Queen's regulations and local administrations have been directed to forbid the use of blank cartridges in the suppression of riots.

During the debate in the Commons last night on the Indian Loan Bill Mr. Russell, the Under-Secretary for India, said the course adopted by the Government was in no wise unusual, and that the present unexhausted borrowing power of the Secretary of State for India had been reduced to £1,850,000, which would only suffice to carry the Government on until January. The next payments, to the extent of eight millions, would, he said, have to be made by April, and hence the necessity for the extension of the borrowing powers of the Secretary of State. If, however, Government had good sales of Council Bills and a sufficient amount of "call" money, it would probably not be required to extend the borrowing power; but if the sales were poor it would require five millions, and if no sales at all were made six millions would be required. The remainder of the sum asked for was the margin against possible dangers and disturbances. Sir J. Gorst said the Government for the first time was going to sanction speculation in the value of silver. Mr. Goschen said the Government had embarked on a gigantic speculation. Sir W. V. Harcourt said the course adopted by Government was in order to meet a temporary difficulty of the Indian Government in dealing with its bills. Sir Richard Temple supported the Government.

THE object of the Company is to form and maintain a factory in Yokohama for the Manufacture of Watches of all kinds and descriptions.

The founders of the Company are possessed of a plant of machinery complete in every particular, of the newest design and the finest workmanship, and adapted for the making of all implements used in the watch trade as well as the making of watches. It is well known that machinery has effected a complete revolution in the watch trade and it is confidently expected that by availing itself of the comparatively cheap labour of this country this Company will be able to supply the trade in all parts of the world with an article which for excellence of workmanship and cheapness of price will defy competition.

Mr. P. H. Wheeler, the Superintendent of the Company, has been for many years engaged in developing watch-making machinery, and the testimonials from his former employers testify to his business ability, skill, and integrity. The machinery of which the founders are possessed has been perfected under his superintendence and a considerable part thereof is of his invention.

Besides the Machinery, the founders are possessed of ten thousand watches in various stages of completion which are the out-turn of the said Machinery; and material on hand sufficient to turn out about twenty-five thousand more. It will thus be seen that it is not an untried plant which the founders have acquired, but one which has already given proofs of its excellence. It was only the advantage of obtaining a cheaper labour market than can be found in the United States that has induced them to work the business in Japan.

It is an established fact that the principal factories in the United States in seven years paid 500 per cent. dividend on a capital of Six Million Dollars; and that was done on a wage basis of $1.50 (gold) per operative, the factories employing six thousand hands. If the difference in the rate of labour in this country is taken into consideration the operations of the Company will be assured to realise to the full the expectations of the founders. The profits of watch-making are based entirely on the price of labour. It is not in the labour market only that an advantage will be obtained. Coal and other materials can be purchased in this country at a lower rate than in the United States. And besides all these advantages, which are great, there is one of still greater importance, the knowledge to be obtained of the requirements of the local trade, of the trade for China, and that of "The Straits" and India. The Company will be capable of supplying a watch of the best workmanship to the population of these large and important countries at a price far below any watch of like character that has ever been offered to these markets.

Taking into consideration these advantages the founders confidently expect to pay a dividend of at least 20 per cent. per annum on the first two years' work and thereafter dividends at a much higher rate.

The Company has been registered in Hongkong as a Limited Company.

The founders take and acquire 30,000 shares of the stock of the Company in payment for the machinery plant and stock and their labour and experience in preparing and procuring the machinery and stock.
